

List of Participants:

SW 48: Immigration & Nationalism: Finding Common Ground Between Narrative Extremes

1. Andrew Majeske, John Jay College of Criminal Justice, New York City (USA).
 - "Identifying a Solid Foundation for Human Rights in Revolutionary Times: An Appreciation of Robert Howse's Leo Strauss: Man of Peace."
2. Gilad Ben-Nun, University of Leipzig, Leipzig, (Germany).
 - "Surrogates to Conquest: Leo Strauss, Carl Schmitt and the Spatial Problem of Military Occupation"
3. Kathryn Temple, Georgetown University, Washington DC (USA) (attending remotely—she will be delivering her paper via Zoom link).
 - "William Blackstone's "Third Thing": Agamben, Blackstone and the Role of Emotion in Immigration Debates"
4. Yvonne Bezrucka, University of Verona, Verona (Italy).
 - "A Collective Amnesia: National Borders and the Refugee Crisis"
5. Andrew Gross, University of Göttingen, Göttingen (Germany)
 - "Hannah Arendt: Immigration, Identity, and Citizenship"
6. Ellen Hinsey, Independent Scholar & Author, Paris (France).
 - "Beyond Populist Rhetoric: Geopolitics and the Risk of Permanent Dictatorship"
7. William Spielberger, Attorney and Human Rights Advocate, Chicago (USA).
 - "Finding narrow doors in broad walls: How Project Rozana transports seriously ill children from Gaza to Jerusalem"
8. Paul Von Chiamski, University of Warsaw, Warsaw (Poland).
 - "Income inequality and electoral instability"
9. David Bayer, University of Leipzig, Leipzig. (Doctoral Candidate, Graduate School for Global and Area Studies)
 - "Feeding the Cycle - International Donor Politics and the Exacerbation of Conflict and Forced Migration."